Copyright stamped by Underwood & Underwood on verso with pencil notation.	With clipped two copyright notices to photographs (same sentences). "Mme. Sarah Bernhardt, the most picturesque and famous figure, that ever appeared on the stage of the world, in her most recent photograph. She looks considerably younger than seventy-two, despite her serious illness. To Mme. Bernhardt's already large collection of honors, medals and decorations, another war medal of gold is to be added. The medal is a duplicate of decorations presented to Marshal Joffre, President Poincaré of France and former Premier Viviani. The medal is a commemoration of the entry of the United into the war and was conceived by the American Fund for French Wounded. Mme. Bernhardt is one of the very few woman to be presented with the Legion of Honor decoration. Her work in behalf of French war reliefs has earned for her a reputation equally as great as her actress fame. This is one of the few recent photographs of Mme. Bernhardt who has just recovered from a serious illness and is still convalescent in New York City. 7/12/17.	n.d. (c.1917).	Print Paper Size: 25.7cm x 20.3cm (Image Size: 25.1x19.7cm).
